Section B

The poem below is Disabled, by Wilfred Owen.

Read the poem carefully and then answer the questions that follow.

Disabled

He sat in a wheeled chair, waiting for dark,
And shivered in his ghastly suit of grey,
Legless, sewn short at elbow. Through the park
Voices of boys rang saddening like a hymn,
Voices of play and pleasure after day,
Till gathering sleep had mothered them from him.

About this time Town used to swing so gay
When glow-lamps budded in the light-blue trees,
And girls glanced lovelier as the air grew dim,—
In the old times, before he threw away his knees.
Now he will never feel again how slim
Girls' waists are, or how warm their subtle hands,
All of them touch him like some queer disease.

There was an artist silly for his face,
For it was younger than his youth, last year.
Now, he is old; his back will never brace;
He's lost his colour very far from here,
Poured it down shell-holes till the veins ran dry,
And half his lifetime lapsed in the hot race
And leap of purple spurted from his thigh.

One time he liked a blood-smear down his leg,
After the matches carried shoulder-high.
It was after football, when he'd drunk a peg,
He thought he'd better join. He wonders why.
Someone had said he'd look a god in kilts.
That's why; and maybe, too, to please his Meg,
Aye, that was it, to please the giddy jilts,
He asked to join. He didn't have to beg;
Smiling they wrote his lie: aged nineteen years.
Germans he scarcely thought of, all their guilt,
And Austria's, did not move him. And no fears

Of Fear came yet. He thought of jewelled hilts
For daggers in plaid socks; of smart salutes;
And care of arms; and leave; and pay arrears;
Esprit de corps; and hints for young recruits.
And soon, he was drafted out with drums and cheers.

Some cheered him home, but not as crowds cheer Goal.
Only a solemn man who brought him fruits
Thanked him; and then inquired about his soul.

Now, he will spend a few sick years in institutes,
And do what things the rules consider wise,
And take whatever pity they may dole.
Tonight he noticed how the women's eyes
Passed from him to the strong men that were whole.
How cold and late it is! Why don't they come
And put him into bed? Why don't they come?

Section C

The poem below is The Soldier, by Rupert Brooke.

Read the poem carefully and then answer the questions that follow.

The Soldier

If I should die, think only this of me:
That there's some corner of a foreign field
That is for ever England. There shall be
In that rich earth a richer dust concealed;
A dust whom England bore, shaped, made aware,
Gave, once, her flowers to love, her ways to roam,
A body of England's, breathing English air,
Washed by the rivers, blest by suns of home.

And think, this heart, all evil shed away,
A pulse in the eternal mind, no less
Gives somewhere back the thoughts by England given;
Her sights and sounds; dreams happy as her day;
And laughter, learnt of friends; and gentleness,
In hearts at peace, under an English heaven.

24. Select the TWO most accurate words to describe England as it is portrayed in this poem.

A Flawed

B Impoverished

C Idyllic

D Urban

E Pastoral

25. Which of the following quotes from the poem are examples of personification?

Select all that are correct.

A 'If I should die, think only this of me'

B 'In that rich earth a richer dust concealed'

C 'A dust whom England bore'

D 'Gave once, her flowers to love'

E 'And laughter, learnt of friends'

26. Select the TWO most accurate words to describe the narrator.

A Hardened

B Sentimental

C Incredulous

D Conceited

E Patriotic

27. Think about the structure of the poem. Which of the following statements are true?

Select all that are correct.

A There are two stanzas.

B There are 14 lines altogether.

C The rhyme scheme in the first stanza is ABABCDCD.

D Most of the lines have ten syllables in them.

E The rhyme scheme in the first stanza is ABABCDDC.

28. 'In that rich earth a richer dust concealed'

What does the word 'dust' refer to?

Select the most accurate explanation.

A Soil from the country the narrator has died in

B Soil the narrator intends to take from England to a foreign land

C The body of the narrator

D The belongings of the narrator

E An English statue that has been left to crumble into dust

29. Thinking about the first stanza, how does the narrator portray the possibility of dying fighting for his country?

Select the most accurate explanation.

A It won't be in vain because his fallen body will make wherever he dies a part of England.

B It is a terrible tragedy and waste of a young life.

C It is something that is inevitable and not worth trying to avoid.

D It is something that is worth risking for the greater good of humanity.

E It is something that would be devastating for his family but good for England.

30. Think about the poem as a whole. Which of these statements is NOT correct?

Select one answer.

A Alliteration is used in the poem.

B The first line implies that the narrator would not want anyone to grieve for him.

C England is personified in the poem.

D England is portrayed as a beautiful place.

E The narrator thinks that fighting for your country is a necessary evil.

Section D

Answer the following questions using BOTH poems.

31. Think about the narrators in both poems. Which of the following statements are true?

Select all that are correct.

B The first-person narrator in The Soldier is only apparent in the first line.

C The narrator in Disabled describes the thoughts and feelings of a disabled ex-soldier.

D We can assume that the narrator in The Soldier is male.

E The narrator in Disabled is in the second person.

32. What is the most significant difference between the poems?

Select the most accurate explanation.

A Disabled is about one soldier, but The Soldier is about soldiers in general.

B Disabled is about a real war, but The Soldier is about a fictional war.

C Disabled reveals the realities of war, but The Soldier glorifies war.

D Disabled has more stanzas than The Soldier.

E Disabled and The Soldier have different types of narrators.

33. Why would it be helpful when studying the poems to know about the lives of the poets and when the poems were written?

Select the most accurate explanation.

A We would know how old the poets were when they wrote the poems, which would tell us how clever they were for their ages.

B We could investigate the rhyme schemes of other poems being written at the time they wrote their poems.

C We could make a judgement about whether their poems are worth reading.

D We could understand how their experiences influenced the poems they wrote.

E We could decide which poet has used their imagination more effectively.

34. Which of the following statements are true about BOTH poems?

Select all that are correct.

A Most of the lines have ten syllables.

B They contain rhyming couplets.

C They show how war can be glorified.

D They have war as their central theme.

E They must have been written in the same year.

Marking Guidance

For each question, the maximum number of marks available is shown.

Where questions require multiple answers and use the rubric, 'Select all that are correct', negative marking should also be applied, whereby 1 mark is deducted for each incorrect answer selected down to 0 marks (note that the number of marks per question cannot be negative).

For example:

If a question is worth 2 marks and requires options A, B and C to be selected:

Award 2 marks for A, B and C selected or 1 mark for any two correct answers selected.

Award 1 mark for A, B, C and D or E selected (2 marks – 1 incorrect = 1 mark).

Award 0 marks for A, B, C, D and E selected (2 marks – 2 incorrect = 0 marks).

Award 0 marks for A, B and E selected or equivalent (1 mark – 1 incorrect = 0 marks).
